Karl Radek, one of the leaders of the executive committee of the third internationale, says M. Chitcherin's note was issued jurt before the Washington conference, as the eastern Siberian question will be discussed at the meeting. He adds Russia is "naturally eager to protect the rights of far eastern republies."

Ready for November--Fashion With Val

The constant increase in value for every dollar you spend is distinctly noticeable at this store. With the beginning of November and the decisive need for winter apparel of all sorts this little shop is ready with seasonable and fashionable merchandise at greater values than previously shown. Being constantly in touch with a great buying organization in New York, which supplies high-class specialty stores in the larger cities throughout the country, we are able to secure many notable values which the average store does not have the opportunity to see. This is reflected in values like these noted below, which come to us in never-ending succession. Keep in touch with Jelleff's.
